

This time, Gitta Gurke and Kalle Bohne are on the trail of really crafty crooks ... and as always, the assistance of all detectives from age 9 onwards is urgently needed!

There are three big cases to be cracked this time:

A precious gem has disappeared from the Motzenstein museum. Could Karo Ratzelmann have struck once again? Gitta and Kalle, the experienced amateur sleuths, are hot on his trail.

Professor Laritzke has made a sensational invention: Roby, a highly sophisticated type of robot. But there are shady characters lurking about, just waiting to take advantage of Roby's special abilities ... a case for Gitta Gurke and Kalle Bohne!

The unique feature of this book: On every page there are obstacles to be overcome and riddles to unravel while stalking the culprits. Here's a little secret: As always, a look at the relevant picture will offer up some helpful clues!
