

The illustration depicts two children in a lush, green, forest-like setting. A boy with blonde hair, wearing a yellow swimsuit, is lying on his back on a large green rock, looking up at the sky. A girl with curly brown hair, wearing an orange swimsuit, is sitting on the rock behind him, looking towards the camera with a smile. The background is filled with dense green foliage and a small crescent moon in the blue sky. The overall style is soft and painterly.
