

An illustration of a boy and a sloth on a tree branch. The boy, on the left, is hanging upside down by his arms, wearing a red t-shirt, blue jeans, and blue shoes. He has a surprised expression. The sloth, on the right, is hanging from the same branch by its claws, holding a red and white plate. It has a friendly, smiling face. The background is a solid yellow color with some green leaves visible at the top.
